

How to Work a Room with ease, confidence and results

By Heather White

List of Contents

Introduction	4
Networking – what it is and isn't	5
What are the benefits of attending events?	6
Reject me, I love it!	7
Why are you going?	8
What are you selling?	8
When to arrive?	9
Sniffy, stiffy and just plain difficult people!	9
How to work a room – the techniques	10
All the pre-event bits	10
Going it alone?	10
What to do before you turn up	11
What to do when you first arrive	11
How to break into a group	12
Gender differences	12
MEN!!!!	12
WOMEN???	13
What to do when you have joined a group	15
When not to shake hands with people you meet	16
Why you should leave a gap in the group	16
Never do these things – seriously bad form	16
How to leave the 'boring' person	16
How to leave a group professionally	17
How to create, engage in and steer a conversation	18
How to get over the 'glazed look'	20
How to work a table and topic of conversations	20
Finding the common ground	22
Giving and receiving business cards	24
Remembering names	25
How to find your 'needle in a haystack'	26
Techniques for shy or quiet types	26
Approaches to networking	27
Tips for when attending events	27
Creating a simple strategy	27
Pre-event	28
At the event	28
How to get over the fear of sounding or looking stupid	29
What to do if you're more junior than most others in the room	30
A quick personal story	30
How to make a really BIG impression instantly	31
How to host an event	32
The pre- and post-event briefing of the team	32
How to 'work' your guests	33
Introducing senior executives	34
The Author: Heather White, CEO of Smarter Networking	36